

Race, Multilateral Institutions, and International Relations

Guest Lecture Series

Winter Term 2023/24

01.11. *Race and Hegemonic Delegation:
The Sino-American Case*

Zoltán I. Búzás
University of Notre Dame

10.11. *Black Studies and Security Studies:
Retrieving an Intimate Relationship*

Robbie Shilliam
Johns Hopkins University

Note different day and time: Friday 12-2pm

15.11. *Racism and International Law: A
Materialist Approach*

Ntina Tzouvala
Australian National University

29.11. *The Whiteness of Wealth Management:
Colonial Economic Structure, Racism, and the Emergence of Tax Havens in the British Caribbean*

Lukas Hakelberg
Freie Universität Berlin

06.12. No Partial Public Sympathies: Ethics of Justice and Citizenship in the African Diaspora

Siba N. Grovogui
Cornell University

13.12. *Is the Disorder of Our Times
Unprecedented?*

Ayşe Zarakol
University of Cambridge

17.01. *Race and Battle in the Production of Military History:
The US in Korea, 1950-51*

Tarak Barkawi
London School of Economics

24.01. On Racial Capitalism

Robert Knox
University of Liverpool

31.01. *The 'Justice Industry' and Struggles
For Racial Justice*

Mariam Salehi
Freie Universität Berlin

On Wednesdays

4 - 6 pm in R340

At the John F. Kennedy Institute
Lansstraße 7-9, 14195 Berlin

Organizer: Prof. Lora Anne Viola